The following letter from our regular correspondent at Boston gives the very latest intellimorally certain:

Meeting of the Massachusetts Legislature— Election of a Whig Clerk-No election of speaker-Loco-Faco Senate. Correspondence of The Tribune.

Boston, Jan. 4, 1843.

The Massachusetts Legislature convened at the State House this ferenoon at 11 o'clock. On account of the peculiar state of parties in our Commonwealth, an unusal degree of curiosity was manifested to witness the first day's proceedings; and accordingly every inch of space allowed to spectators was occupied.

Agreeably to usage, the House was called to order by the senior member of the Boston delegation, John C. Gray, Esq. A committee of five, (Mr. GREELE, of Boston, Chairman,) was appointed to examine the credentials of members, for the purpose of ascertaining whether a Constitutional quorum was present. This Committee having reported that the requisite number were in attendance, a Committee of seven, (Mr. KINNIcurr, of Worcester, Chairman,) was appointed to wait upon the Governor, and inform him that the House was ready to take and subscribe the oaths required by the Constitution.

At a quarter before 12, His Excellency the Gevernor, attended by the Lieut. Governor, Secretary of State, and the Executive Council. came in under the escort of the Sergeant at Arms and the High Sheriff of Suffolk, and proceeded to administer the eaths. This was a very imposing ceremony. All the members, (except such as were conscientiously scrupulous of swearing in the usual form,) rose simultaneously, and repeated, at the same time, the oaths, as they were read by His. Excellency. In addition to this, each member affixed his signature to the oaths, in a book prepared for the purpose. After this, such members as were conscientiously scropulous of swearing in the usual form, took the oaths in the form of as affirmation. The Governor and his attendants then retired, and the chair was again taken by Mr. GRAY of Boston.

A Committee of seven, (Hon. DANIEL P. KING, of Dasvers, Chairman,) was then chosen to receive, sort and count the votes for Clerk. The balloting resulted in the election of LUTHER S. CUSHING, Esq., (Whig) by three majority, as follows: Whole number of votes, 349; Cushing, (Whig) 176; John A. Bolles, (Loco) 173. Mr. ADAMS of Boston was appointed to inform Mr. Cushing

Mr. Cusuing appeared in the House, and the oath of office having been administered to him by the Chairman pro tem., he immediately took the Chair, according to custom, and was about to call upon the House to appoint the usual Committee to receive and count the votes for Speaker, when

Mr. PARK, of Boston, submitted an Order, to the effect that Thomas Nash, Jr., claiming a seat as a member from Whately, be called upon to rise in his place and declare whether he had presented, er had now in his possession, the credentials required by the Constitution. Mr. P. said he was aware that this was an unusual course, but it was one which he felt bound by his oath to take.

Mr. Thomas, of Charlestown, stated that he held in his hand the decument under which the gentleman from Whately claimed a seat. It was a copy of the Town Clerk's record, duly certified, which showed that he had been elected as really and truly as the gentleman from Boston. He maintained, however, that this was not the proper time to settle the question as to the validity of his election, and therefore moved that the order lie upon the table, which was decided in the affirmative, 176 to 169. Mr. Nash is a Loco-Foco. There was present also, and voting, a Whig from the same town, who received the regular certificate of election from the town authorities. Their respective claims will of course be investigated

A committee of five (Mr. Loud, of Dorchester, Chairman) was appointed to receive and count the votes for Speaker. The balloting resulted as

Whole number of votes.....351 Thomas Kinnicutt of Worcester, (Whig). 173 Seth J. Thomas, of Charlestown, (Loco). 173 Lewis Williams, of Easton, (Abolition) ... 4 John A. Bolles, Clerk, (error)..... 1 No choice having been made, the House proceeded to ballot a second time, with the following

Thomas Kinnicutt, (Whig) ..... 174 Lewis Williams, (Ab.).... 2 There being no choice, the House balloted

again, as follows: Seth J Thomas, (Loco)......175

The House requested the same committee to receive and count the ballots again; but at this point Mr. Bigelew, of Boston, presented an order, to the effect that Thomas Nash (Loco) claiming a seat from Whately, be called upon to state to the House whether he had voted for Speaker at the last ballot. Mr. B. was about to proceed with

Mr. ALLEN, of Northfield, contended that the order was out of order, the House having voted to proceed to elect a Speaker.

Mr. Walley of Roxbury, and Mr. STEVENSON of Boston, contended that the question was one of privilege, and therefore took precedence of all

Mr. Sawren of Charlestown moved to lay the whole subject upon the table; but the Clerk suffered the debate upon the main question to pro-

The Loco-Focos maintained that Mr. Nash was rightfully a member, and that several Whigs (the members from Chelsea particularly) were occupying seats illegally; and they declared that if one case was investigated before the election of Speaker, all doubtful ones should be.

Mr. Bigglow of Boston said that the case of the meraber from Chelsea was entirely different from that of the members from Whately; the former having the certificate required by Statute, while the latter had only a certified copy of the

The debate is going on now at a quarter before 4 o'clock; but I must close my letter, or lose the chance of sending it.

The Senate was organized by the choice of P. W. LELAND, (Loco,) President, by 12 to 9 for Josiah Quincy, Jr. and two scattering, and Lewis Josselyn, (Loco, late Editor of the Bay State Democrat,) Clerk, by 14 to 10 for Charles Calhoun, Whig. Yours, truly, HANCOCK.

VOL. H. NO. 231. NEW-YORK, FRIDAY MORNING, JANUARY 6. 1843.

Municipal Affairs. Rents in the City.

In the Board of Aldermen, on Wednesday evening, a veto on the ordinance for cleaning the streets by contract, was received from his Honor the Mayor. The veto was very long, and without debate was gence from the new Legislature of that State. It ordered to be printed in two of the public journalswill be seen that the election of Morton and the one of each party. His main objections to the ordinascendancy of the Loco-Focos in Joint Ballot are ance were, that by the Charter the Common Council had not power to make a contract which involves an appropriation for more than one year, without the sanction of the State Legislature; and, also, that the contract if carried into effect would not sufficiently protect the interests of the

> On the resolution to lease for the term of five years the use of the dock for a floating bath at $200 a year, Aldermen Carman and Smith said the time of the lease was too long. The city was growing, and the dock ought to be open to competition from year to year.

Ald. Lee said he thought the Common Council ought to afford every facility in their power to the citizens for salt water bathing.

Ald. Balis said that some two years ago when Mr. Thomas built a bath, the choice of the docks -the upper side or the lower side of the bridge to Castle Carden-was offered to Mr. Rabineau, at $300 for the lower side, and $200 for the upper side. Mr. Rabineau chose the lower side, and Alderman Balis thought that either sum was a good round price. The resolution was passed. On a resolution appropriating $400 to Mr. Baird for the costs incurred in a suit brought against him by Mr. Armstrong,

Aldermen Gedney and Purdy objected to make the appropriation, on the ground that a portion of it would go into the pockets of the lawyers. Ald. Davis defended the profession with much spirit, and said that these distinguished Aldermen who were running the race for the first magistracy of the city, were following in the tracks of other distinguished men who had endeavored to make themselves popular by berating the profession of the law. The Aldermen were however mistaken as to the direction of this money, for $300 of it went to the payment of witnesses-poor laborers who came from Massachusetts to attend this trial, and a portion of the remainder went to pay other costs, so that very little of it went into the pockets of the lawyers. As to the merits of the case it seems that Mr. Baird is entitled to the sum recommended in the report. He passed over the land of Mr. Armstrong by the direction of the Street Commissioner, in order to reach a certain

LATE AND IMPORTANT FROM FLORIDA. - The following is an extract of a letter from Palatka. under date of the 26th inst. The information may be relied on as authentic. The news of the escape of a party of Indians from Sea Horse Key is probably incorrect:

"Matters in general in Florida wear rather a favorable aspect, and I trust, if success continues. it will not be long before the country will be entirely rid of every red-skin. Tigertail is safely out of the woods; his band, together with Octiarche's, consisting of over 100 Indians, among whom are 42 hearty warriors, found themselves rather suddenly transferred from terra firma to a steamer, a few days since, at Tampa, and as suddenly transferred to Horse Key, a picturesque isle, where they sail for New-Orleans on the 31st inst. As Conventions are so much the order of the day, I advise the landlords of this great city to assemble and consider upon the propriety of reducing the rents on the 1st proximo one-third of the repairing roads without proper authority, and appropriapresent price. This would, no doubt, in some in- ting the sum of $3,000 to meet the expense of the same stances, secure the other two thirds.

Besides, the times call for it. Many people cannot pay the present rates, as I know by expe-A SUFFERER.

We don't know about this. It looks smiling on this side, but let us turn it. Suppose the landlords assemble, and, after discussion, conclude that their property is let too low-that the Taxes, Assessments, &c. are very high, and they must chalk up the Rents 19 to 20 per cent, at the next letting. "What an abominable combination!" to combine to put up Rents! Let this matter regulate i/self." You see, fellow 'Sufferer,' that this rule won't work the other way, and there is a fair presumption that it won't our way. If people can't pay their Rents, they can't, and there's an end: but if they dress and live expensively, entertain munificently, and work moderately, and then in payment for a night's lodging. There was no proof of any rate, we don't imagine a Convention of Landlords would mend the matter an atom. Ed. Trib.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT .- In Bankruptcy-Be re Judge Bets.

Creditors vs. Barney Corse .- This is the third trial on the nestion whether Mr. Corse had admitted on his schedule a bankruptcy "a false and fictitious debt." The comclaimt is tout he had stated himself as owing to Israel Corse, on bond and mortgage, $100,000, which bond had been transferred to his brother-in law, Mr. Thorne, &c. On the first trial the Jury could not agree. On the second, a verdict was rendered against bim, but a new trial granted, on the ground that the testimony of Mrs. Corse (widow of Israci) had been admitted, which was irrelevant. The Court, from the evidence whether Israel really advanced money to Barney to improve the estate, contenting himself with the bond and morigage, or whether Earney merely acted as an

CIRCUIT COURT-Before Judge Kent.-Stafford Stilwell & Co. vs. B L. Webb .- The parties are extensive flour dealers in this city. The firm of Standard, Chamberlain & Co., at Akrou, Ohio, forwarded to defendant 1,000 barrels of dour, he having previously advanced $5,000 to the house. The plaintiffs claimed to have made an agreement with S. C. & Co. that all the flour manufactured at their mill should be sent to them; that they had made advances for that purpose during the year, to the amount of nearly $30,600, and that $1,600 was still due to them. They replevised the flour, and now bring action to test the ownership. Considerable testimony was presented. A verdict will be rendered to morrow morning.

COMMON PLEAS-Before Judge Inglis .- Abraum E. Davis et al. vs. Elizabeth Smith, et al .- This case was tried before, when the jury could not agree. The plaintiffs are flour merchants in South street, and supplied Abel Smith, who kept an extensive bakery in Cherry street, with flour. Abel failed, owing them a note of $2000. Mrs Smits, mother of Abel, and also his brother Samuel, lived with him. The mother has some little property, and the present action is against the three for the recovery of the imount of the note, on the ground that the mother and Samuel were joint partners of Abel. This is denied, and considerable testimony was presented in support of and against the charge. The case is still on.

E .- A spiendid Magazine for Odd tion connected with our false, repugnant and illrequited system of Laber, and point out briefly the difference between Political and, what we will term, Industrial Liberty, or Liberty in Laborthe first of which has caused so much controversy, strife and bloodshed, while the existence of the latter, far more important, has not been suspected.

Labor, as it is exercised at present, from poverty and want, reduces Man to a miserable state of Industrial Slavery. What LIBERTY can the being enjoy who is FORCED to wear out his life in mo notonous and repulsive toil, because the alternative-Starvation or Want-is more terrible in his eyes than the bondage he resigns himself to! There can be none; and if it be asserted that Labor cannot be exercised otherwise than by all the compulsory means now resorted to-that it cannot be RENDERED ATTRACTIVE, so that it will be exercised voluntarily, it must be acknowledged as a consequence that the Creator has given us only one half the Liberty which we are capable of enjoying, and that he has neglected placing within our reach the means of satisfying those strong aspirations which he has implanted in our natures.

All endeavor to avoid Laber, and render themselves independent of it. To force Man to it, six more or less coercive measures-a list of which we add-are resorted to:

Coercive Measures which are made use of to Enforce Man to Labor in our Civilized Societies. 1st. SLAVERY-A violent and tyrannical measure, which makes use of corporeal punishments as the means of enforcing Labor. This institution, which had its origin in the barbarian period, when the exercise of Industry, for want of implements and other facilities, was extremely difficult, exists only to a partial extent among civilized nations; but it must, nevertheless, be mentioned as a part and feature of our false and repugnant system of Industry.

2d. LABOR FOR WAGES, OR HIRED LABOR-A system of indirect Servitude or Bondage, of Injus-Working Classes. With a dense population, and competition among the Laboring Multitude for Labor, this system reduces them to a condition worse than that of Slaves.

3d. Corporate Monopolius, or leagues of privileged monopolizers, controlling the distribution o Labor, and excluding those often who possess the most skill and talent.

4th. INDUSTRIAL PRISONS, or large closed manufactories, in which the workmen are subjected to strict discipline, the children ill treated, and the health of both often ruined from excess of Labor without variety. To this semi-slavery is to be added fear of want and starvation by being thrown out of employment.

5. POOR-HOUSE AND PENITENTIARY LABOR-Comprising every variety of drudgery, which is the effect of compulsion or condemnation, from that of Alms and Poor-Houses down to that of State Prisons and Galleys.

6th. FALSE COMPETITION among the Laboring Classes, who, from want and necessity, lower their wages, and reduce themselves often to semistarvation. False Competition, together with machinery in the hands of a few, which works against instead of for the Mass, are rapidly impoverishing and degrading the condition of the Labring Classes.

This system of Industrial Servitude is the lot of the Working Classes in all Countries; but the injustice does not end here: to it is added the violation of the fundamental Right of Man-the Right of Labor. Man was placed upon the Earth to live. and to live by Labor: and if its Right be not guaranteed to him, his Right to existence, even, is not acknowledged.

If we look at the cities of civilized Europe, and sometimes at our own, we see the Laboring Classe wandering from manufactory to manufactory and from shop to shop, inquiring for work and refused it. Without any means of subsistence while out of employment, pressed by want, often by starvation. they reduce the price of their day's labor, selling twelve or more hours of monotonous drudgery out of each twenty-four for a miserable pittance. It they manage to avoid actual famine,-slow starvation, unhealthy and excessive labor and anxiety sow the seeds of disease, undermine the constitution, and kill them by slow degrees.

To creatures thus situated, what a mockery to offer them the right to vote, or the guaranty of not being thrown into prison without a writ of habeas corpus! Are they free because they possess these illusory guarantees, when they are at the same time the slaves of Labor, the serfs of Capitalists 7 It is true the whip does not force them to labor like the real Slave; but does not the alternative of Want or Famine do it as effectually? If their bodies cannot be sold, they have to bargain their liberty and their time without being able to dispose scarcely of an heur. No: Political Liberty is perfectly illusory without Industrial Liberty; it is a step-stone, a mere means of enabling Man to attain to his Destiny. Possessing Political Liberty, he is free to discuss all measures of a Social Reform, and the principles of a true Social Organization. It should be made use of and applied to this purpose; if net, it degenerates into party controversy, sows the seeds of violent contentions, and, after running its course, sinks into the political tyranny out of which
